A Message from Pastor Abatelli

It seems gratitude is rare. This thought is proven right in a true story I heard. On a public transportation bus, the people were crammed in, swaying back and forth chaotically in the aisle as the vehicle made stops and started going again. A sickly, elderly man boarded the bus and made his way down the aisle. Suddenly, a middle-age woman stood up and offered him her seat. He fainted, and when he regained consciousness, he said, "Thank you" to the lady. In shock of his words, she fainted.

We, as Christians, know we have a lot to be thankful for, but sometimes we forget. We forget like ill-mannered children, offer no thanks and perhaps feel no thankfulness, but rather feel entitled for those many blessings that not only God gives, but those around us also give us.

Why is thankfulness so rare? Why is it so far from our minds? Have we fallen into the world's ideas that we deserve what God does? Do we feel entitled, that people owe us? God saw this state we are in and in His love and mercy sent Christ. God wanted us as His children. Christ went to the cross and died for what we rightly deserve. We are not entitled to what God gave freely in Christ. God did not owe us anything for Christ dying on the cross to forgive our sins, our ungratefulness. Only out of His love and grace He gave us a Savior.

*After all the undeserving love God gave us,
let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise
- the fruit of lips that openly profess his name.*

Hebrews 13:15

Note the word continually. Thankfulness is not just a one time saying, "Thank you," like celebrating Thanksgiving each year. It is constantly being grateful.

Not only was God gracious to us in Christ, think of a few reasons in your life to be grateful. For me, I am thankful for you, the members at St. Paul for giving me the opportunity to attend the All Church Worker

St. Paul Monthly Messenger

November 2014

"We are God's servants, saved by grace, through faith, commissioned to share the Word of Christ to all."

Conferences. I am thankful for the maid who helped when I asked for assistance. She did not have to, didn't owe me anything, but did help. I am thankful for the waiter at the conference lunch who gave our table the extra desert. I am thankful that my brother-in-law and sister-in-law watched my kids so Katie and I could go to the conference. They did not have to do it, but did. I am thankful that God has placed these people in my life.

Pick something you are thankful for. Need help? Right now, go to a mirror in your house- I will wait. Put your nose to the mirror and watch. See any condensation? Yup, there is reason right there- you are alive. Walk to your Bible, I will wait again. There is another reason right there. God loved us enough to give His words of love in the Bible.

In Colossians, Paul goes further on how to give thanks continually for all the grace God has shown us, making us His righteous people.

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should.

Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone. Col.4:2-6

While all prayers of gratitude and praise always need to be in our hearts and on our tongues, another way we thank God is through our actions. Colossians tells us to be wise and keep our conversations "full of grace." The Holy Spirit gives us power - energized by Christ Jesus' life and death and life again - to live out our praise and thankfulness in our actions too.

As you search for reasons to be thankful, remember what Jesus did for you. Then it will be easier to speak graceful words to someone who doesn't deserve them. In your actions show your grace filled gratitude even if you owe them nothing.

In Christ,
Pastor Abatelli

Lutherans For Life

Some facts and statistics can overwhelm or "kill" a discussion, but they are important. We need to be informed as we seek to express our "pro-life" position. Our motivation is a concern for the lives of the unborn, as well as the health and well-being of the women in our world. As people who value all life, we desire to find positive solutions and alternatives. If you desire to have additional facts and statistics, read further. This information is to encourage all of us to find those positive solutions and alternatives to abortion and also treatments for cancer.

SUSAN G. KOMEN FOUNDATION'S LINK TO PLANNED PARENTHOOD

(ABORTION RISK FACTOR INCREASES BREAST CANCER BY 40%)

Pro-life individuals are often concerned that their charitable donations could go to an organization that in some way supports abortion or supports other organizations which support abortion. The following fact sheet discusses the way Susan G. Komen Foundation's ties to America's leading abortion provider, Planned Parenthood. Komen affiliates have a long history of giving grants to Planned Parenthood. In the fiscal year 2009, Susan G. Komen affiliates gave $731,303 to Planned Parenthood affiliates. From 2004-2009, Komen affiliates gave a total of approximately $3.3 million in grants to Planned Parenthood affiliates. Susan G. Komen defends these grants by saying they are only used for breast cancer screenings. However, grant money is fungible so when Planned Parenthood receives funding from the Komen Foundation they are now able to spend more of their other money on performing and promoting abortions. Komen's leadership has ties to Planned Parenthood. Nancy Brinker, the founder of the Susan G. Komen Foundation, was listed as an advisory board member in the 2002 annual report of Planned Parenthood of North Texas, the fifth largest Planned Parenthood affiliate in the nation. Nancy Brinker received the Gertrude Shelburne Humanitarian Award from Planned Parenthood of North Texas in 1996. Gertrude Shelburne established Planned Parenthood in Dallas and was a friend of Planned Parenthood's founder, Margaret Sanger. Komen openly denies the link between abortion and breast cancer. The Susan G. Komen Foundation officially denies the link between abortion and breast cancer. To support their position, Komen sites conclusions from a 2003 workshop hosted by the National Cancer Institute. The chair of that workshop was Dr. Louise Brinton. More recently, Dr. Brinton co-authored a study which found abortion increases breast cancer risk by 40 percent and accepts abortion as a "known or suspected" risk factor. Others are coming to the same conclusion. The Coalition on Abortion/Breast Cancer web site shows the majority of published peer-reviewed studies indicate abortion increases the risk of breast cancer. The reason why the Susan G. Komen Foundation denies the link between abortion and breast cancer can only be answered by them. Up-to-date research links induced abortion to breast cancer. Women who are facing an untimely pregnancy and women with past abortions have the right to be informed. Women deserve to know the facts about future health risks regarding medical procedures. Government study finds taxpayers subsidizing abortion in Obamacare plans

The Government Accountability Office released a study in September which confirms tax dollars are being used to subsidize abortion in Obamacare. The study shows that elective abortion coverage in the vast majority of plans studied "is not subject to any restrictions, limitations, or exclusions." Thanks to Michigan's Abortion Insurance Opt-Out law, abortions in Michigan will not be subsidized by tax dollars. Learn more about Michigan's Opt-Out law at www.RTL.org

	p. 390 – Literary Features: So much of the book appears to be random. ...the book is content to leave us with its disjointed disarray because that is the nature of life in a disaster. ...Jeremiah depicts disaster not only by writing about it, but also by mixing genres and giving us a blurring, swirling presentation. Disaster is never neat and tidy and neither is the book of Jeremiah.

30 1 st S. in Advent Is 6:1 -- 7:9 1Pt 2:13-25 Ps 123, 7	p. 398 – GOD'S WRITTEN WORD: As Yahweh's messenger, Jeremiah's vocation was clear: deliver God's word—primarily to Judah but also to the nations of the world (Jer 1:10). Jeremiah compares this word to a consuming fire and pounding hammer (Jer 23:29). He was overcome by its power and could not hold it inside, even when he tried to do so (Jer 20:8-9). Yahweh places his words in Jeremiah's mouth (Jer 1:9), ... The prophet's internalization of the divine word is an experience that Yahweh intends for all his people. He promises to put his Torah inside of them and write it upon their hearts (Jer 31:33).

p. 403 – CHRIST IN JEREMIAH: In the book of Jeremiah, Yahweh is anything but detached. Rather, he is torn apart by human pain and burns with a loving desire to be reconciled with his people. In one case he laments, "For the shattering of the daughter of my people I am shattered. I mourn, and dismay has seized me" (Jer 8:21). ...The God who suffers in the book of Jeremiah all the more suffers through Jesus, the Christ. p. 404 – During our Lord's ministry some people associated him with Jeremiah (Mt 16:13-14). Why? Jeremiah faced opposition from every quarter—family and friends (Jer 11:1:8-23; 12:1-6), kings and their officials (Jer 20:1-6; 26:1-24; 36:1-21), and Judah's remnant (Jer 11:19). The prophet felt as though he was a lamb led to the slaughter (Jer 11:19). Jesus was such a Lamb who was sacrificed for the sins of the world (Is 53:7; Acts 8:32).

p. 405 – CONCLUSION: Judah's ...sin brought the nation to the point of no return. The Babylonian exile of 587 happened—in large part—because of the sins of Manasseh (Jer 15:4). Because of this wicked king, Yahweh judged and deported his people. Jeremiah lived during these tumultuous years that witnessed the collapse of Assyria, the rise of Babylon, the false promises of Egypt, and the demise of Judah. He is the most complex and developed prophet in the OT and is anything but shy and aloof in his relationships. His book repeatedly portrays him as hard as a rock while at the same time torn apart inside. Jeremiah's warning and promises walk people into, through, and beyond the realities of destruction and exile.

Did You Know?

*In three short years we reduced our mortgage balance for recent additions to the school from 1.8 to 1.2 million dollars. It is reassuring to know that through our Christian brotherhood we will see to the needs of our local congregation and continue reducing this balance.

*The monthly mortgage payment for the congregation is $14,135.00. In July we donated $10,906.50. How great it has been to be blessed by these modern facilities - and a great blessing to know that when shortages like this are known, our congregation will respond.

*Various organizations within our congregation struggle to share Jesus with others due to the lack of volunteerism. A better way to describe a member is someone who is engaged in the ministry of the church so we can actively share Jesus with our world. If you want to learn more about how you can help, please contact the church or school office.

Thank You from the 8th Grade Class

Dear Members of St. Paul, Families, and Friends,

The eighth grade class had a successful and wonderful trip to Washington DC, and we would like to thank you for making it possible. Here are some excerpts from essays they wrote about the trip:

"DC was amazing! My favorite place was the WWII Memorial. It was so gorgeous at night! I want to say thanks to everyone who helped us with the cost of the trip by helping with the fundraiser events." ~ Sam Ayotte

"Thank you for the money for our Washington DC trip. We had a lot of fun. My favorite part was Gettysburg. I liked the video, cyclorama, and then going out on the battlefield." ~ AnnaMae Beckman

"My favorite was the end of Day 2 when we visited the Lincoln Memorial, then the Korean Memorial, and the WWII Memorial. That was the perfect way to end the night." ~Dustin Bishop

"I most appreciated that we had the chance to go with our parents because it was a lot of fun." ~Samantha Bishop

"I greatly appreciated the time I was able to spend in Washington DC... Throughout the trip, the growth of our country was described to us, whether by visiting historic battlegrounds, museums, or other places. Some of my favorite places we visited include the Lincoln, World War II, and Korean Memorials, along with the National Archives." ~Sydney Bishop

"In DC I learned a lot at the museums...all in all it was a pretty good trip." ~ Josh Blue

"I thought the changing of the guards was cool. I learned how hard it is to be in their position. It was an amazing trip. I loved it." ~Ethan Brady

"When we went to DC I liked that we got family time. We went to see the Washington Monument and took a picture that looked like my sister was holding me in her hand, and I was holding the Washington Monument in mine." ~ Kaitlyn Burton

"I loved the DC trip. I liked learning about history and about our government. Going to the different places gave me a better idea about our freedom and how our government works. I also got a better glimpse of war." ~ Keagan Butterfield

"First of all, I want to say thank you for giving me the opportunity to go on this wonderful trip. I learned so much and had a lot of fun. I had never been to DC before, and it was an awesome experience." ~Mitchell Curtis

"My favorite place was the Lincoln Memorial. It was cool to see his speech engraved on the wall and to see how tall the sculpture is." ~ Corey Daenzer

"When I got to DC, I learned about the Hope Diamond, Julia Child's kitchen, the Beatles album "Meet the Beatles", the "Star Spangled Banner" and Gettysburg. It was a great learning experience for me." ~Timmy David

"I most appreciated that I know other people don't get that experience to go and learn about our nation's capital. I am also glad that our teacher, parents, bus drivers and tour guides had the patience to put up with us. And I am thankful for all the people who helped us with the fundraisers. And I am thankful for my parents who were willing to pay for me to go to Washington DC." ~ Leah Denome

"My favorite was the Lincoln Memorial because you can see the Washington Monument and Capitol from there. My second favorite was the National Cathedral because one of the gargoyles has the face of Darth Vader." ~ Johnny Fick

"My group walked to the Washington Monument, which is probably one of my favorite things in DC because of its size and simple shape." ~ Pierce Force

"I enjoyed being in Washington DC. I was probably one of the only people who enjoyed the bus ride there and back. It was relaxing. After about 12 hours of sitting in that bus, it felt kind of like home." ~ Sterling Force

"I appreciated all of the memorials because they are there to remember all the awesome people and to teach kids about them." ~ Bradyn Henderson

"To go to DC is not just a normal field trip. It is the real deal! Now I am not a big fan of history, trust me, but the difference about DC, the monuments and memorials is that you don't just look at them or learn about them – you become part of them! If you stop and think about it, our country wouldn't be what it is today without these people, the wars and their sacrifices." ~ Kaitlyn III

"I appreciated learning things that I could see in person and be able to touch and learn in person. DC is a big place, and you don't want to get lost in it." ~ Katelyn Kaschner

"My trip to DC was spectacular. I appreciate the help we got." ~ Becca Kilbourn

"Gettysburg was my favorite. The trip was excellent and I learned that I love keys!" ~ Jacob Koch

"DC was fun. I had a blast there. When I got home I learned that my Grandpa Dow served in WWII. What a brave soldier." ~ Mason Lugg

On our DC trip I enjoyed spending time with my friends and my mom. My favorite part of the trip was Gettysburg. I had a great time in DC." ~ Zac Maas

"I liked the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials. I also loved our tour guide. She was amazing and informed us about our next stop. I also liked Mount Vernon. My favorite part was the whole farming area in the back. I also loved the fish market, seeing the fish, fresh shrimp, and octopus – it was awesome." ~ Olivia Ostrander

"The DC trip was an amazing experience for me. It was exciting and awesome trip that I will never forget. I loved the memorials, museums, the capitol, the White House, the Pentagon, and the whole experience. I felt like this trip really brought our class together. This was a trip I was glad to be a part of." ~ Gabrielle Sherman

"My favorite place was the Museum of Natural History...because it had a lot of cool skeletons of sea animals. The two prettiest sights I saw were the inside of the National Cathedral and the Lincoln Memorial pool at sunset." ~ Jack Shreve

"I really appreciated going to DC because the school gives us this amazing opportunity. I've been there before, but I was younger, so I thought it was boring. Now I realize how important it is to learn about government, troops, our American history, and our nation's capitol." ~ McKenna Slough

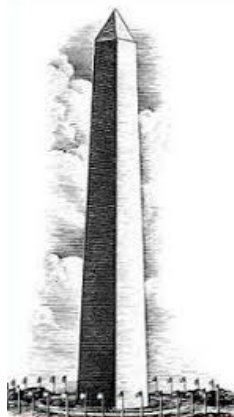

"I had a lot of fun on the DC trip! I loved that we actually got to go see everything rather than reading it out of a book. What I appreciated most was that I got the opportunity to go to DC and for everyone that helped us raise the money for the trip." ~Faith Smith

"During my week long trip to Washington DC I learned about the history of the nation I have the privilege to live in. Out of the whole learning experience, the thing that hit me the hardest was the fact that hundreds of thousands of people lost their lives to make the country the way it is now. Wow. Now I feel as if I owe those soldiers something for their sacrifice. All I can do is be my best to make America a better place." ~ Jenna Smith

"I enjoyed going to our nation's capital because of the knowledge I obtained. It was extremely educational, and in a fun way too; never would I have come to understand our history as I have if we were taught through a textbook." ~Katherine Weber

"While I was at Washington DC I learned a lot. I want to say thank you to the teachers that sent us snacks and to PTL for the $10 for our meal." ~ Jon White

"We also went to the Pentagon. It was different than you think. The inside wasn't all about war prep. It was like a shopping mall with a food court! I loved DC." ~ Mason Wolfington

Topic: “Alones”, But Never Alone

Q: What are the “Alones” of the church?

A: Sola is the Latin word for Alone. Five phrases came from writings during the Protestant Reformation (the time during and after Martin Luther), based on teaching throughout Scripture, to explain their beliefs.

The Five Solas (or “Alones”) are: Sola Fide, by faith alone; Sola Scriptura, by Scripture alone; Solus Christus, through Christ alone; Sola Gratia, by grace alone; Soli Deo Gloria, glory to God alone. We will focus on Scripture & Christ alone, will explore and see and discuss a modern-day application for you.
