St. Paul Monthly Messenger

July 2015

"We are God's servants, saved by grace, through faith, commissioned to share the Word of Christ to all."

A Message from Pastor Abatelli

Jesus told them this parable:

"Suppose one of you has a hundred sheep and loses one of them. Doesn't he leave the ninety-nine in the open country and go after the lost sheep until he finds it?

And when he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends and neighbors together

and says, 'Rejoice with me;

I have found my lost sheep.'

Luke 15:3-6

Do you know how much joy God had when He found you? Have you ever thought you were a joy to God?

One day a little girl went lost when the father was shopping in a department store. He looked everywhere in every direction, numerous times. Yet, there was no sign of her.

Immediately, the father's heart began to race like he was running a marathon - pumping hard and fast. It seemed to be pumping harder and harder with every place he looked. The sense of urgency flooded his mind. He perspires from his face.

Then he looked behind a clothes rack and there she was, hiding. It was only for a few minutes, but in times like that, time seems to stretch out longer. The relief he felt was overwhelming with joy. Peace, comfort and a realization that this is how it was supposed to be - his child back in his arms, back home.

The July Messenger is sponsored in memory of Jeanne Jaruzel from her husband, daughters, and grandchildren.

God's heart was full of joy when He found you. God spared nothing in finding you, in getting you back home. God sent the greatest search party that could ever be formed. He sent Christ for you. You do not belong to Him because of chance or accident, or a stroke of fate. You are His because He never gave up His search for you. He died to make you His, He rose to have you in His arms again.

Like the father who found his daughter, God had the same joy in saving you, in finding you to bring you back home. For that is where you are supposed to be - back with Him, back in His arms. You are His joy that Hebrews 12:2 says:

For the joy set before Him He endured the cross, scorning its shame...

Opportunities to Serve & Volunteer

Ushers

If you would like the opportunity to serve your Lord, the Usher Policy has been updated to include both men and women. Ushers are needed for all three services. Please contact the church office, Glen Brown at 810-686-1490 or an Elder for more information.

Screen Techs

We are looking for more people to run the screen for church services. We will train you and you can choose which service you would like. Please call the church office if interested and we will put you into rotating schedule.

Moving Costs

Our new 8th grade teacher will be moving here soon. Please consider helping offset the moving costs so we won't have to use money from the General Fund. To donate, please place money in an envelope marked "Moving Expenses" and put in the offering plate or bring to the church office.

Water for the Weary

The Board of Evangelism will once again have the "Water for the Weary" booth during the Millington Festival. Please help by signing up for a shift on the glass case in the narthex. Shifts are only 2-3 hours each and all you need to do is smile, hand out water and brochures to interested people.

Gardening Help

Volunteers are needed to help weed the flowers around the church. Every little bit helps – even if you can only stay for an hour or two. Please call the church office if you can help.

Mattress

A fellow church member is in need of a twin mattress. If you have a nice one to spare, please call the church office.

A Year in the New Testament, CPH 2010. 17 July – Galatians 5:1-26

Sin likes to hide. When God comes to Abraham and promises, "Sarah your wife shall have a son" (Gn 18:10), Sarah laughs because she is well past childbearing age. When confronted about her defiance of God's promise, she responds, "I did not laugh" (18:15). She tries to hide her sin. When David commits adultery with Bathsheba and she becomes pregnant, he calls in Bathsheba's husband from the battlefield and attempts to get him to sleep with his wife so that the affair might be covered. He tries to hide his sin. When Judas betrays Jesus for thirty pieces of silver, John adds this note to Judas' betrayal: "And it was night" (Jn 13:30). Under cover of darkness, Judas tries to hide his sin.

Sin likes to hide. And yet, sin can only hide for so long. As Paul warns, "Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, envy, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these" (Gal 5:19-21). Sin, says Paul, becomes evident. It cannot hide forever. The Greek word for "evident" is phaneros, from which we get the word epiphany. Indeed, in the Greek text, phaneros in the first word of Paul's sentence, making it emphatic. Paul does not want us to miss this: sinfulness always reveals itself! As Jesus warns, "Nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light" (Lk 8:17). Again, the Greek word for "manifest" is phaneros.

Blessedly, not only is sin revealed according to God's judgment, our Savior is revealed according to God's promise. As Paul writes, "For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ" (Ti 2:11-13). In verses 11 and 13, the word for "appear" is epiphaino. Thus, though our sin may be made manifest, our Savior has also been made manifest in His birth, death, and resurrection and will be made manifest again on the Last Day. And His manifestation outshines and forgives any appearing of our sin. Christ's appearing, in turn, trains us to renounce ungodliness and reveals in us the fruit of Christ's Spirit: "Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Gal 5:22-23). And so, we long for Christ's epiphany.

Church Extension Fund

Church Extension Fund has provided dedicated Christian financial management since 1901. Your ancestors have likely invested with CEF for just as long, helping to build our faith through ministries across the state. Now, you and your family can carry on this important tradition and further the vital funding needs of Michigan District congregations. You'll enjoy proven investment products, competitive interest rates, measurable results, and the knowledge that the Church is benefiting, too. Call 800-242-3944 or visit us at www.mi-cef.org to get started.

Thank you!

Members of St. Paul Millington, Pastor Bruner, Pastor Abatelli, Principal Titsworth, Faculty, & Staff,

Thank you for your recent gift to the Fort Wayne Seminary. The students very much appreciate your thoughtfulness and generosity. We especially thank you for your support of the students in their time of study and formation to proclaim the Gospel of Christ.

Pastor Wright

Thank you to the youth from Trinity Lutheran, Clinton Township. They came to St. Paul during the District Youth Gathering and helped wash chairs for their servant event.
