St. Paul Monthly Messenger

August 2015

"We are God's servants, saved by grace, through faith, commissioned to share the Word of Christ to all."

A Message from Pastor Bruner

*The August Messenger is sponsored in honor of Art & Ilene Weber's
65th wedding anniversary,

Dear Brothers and Sister in Christ,

Summer brings many changes. Schedules change for vacations and other activities. The crops change before our eyes. The Lord has been blessing our area with favorable conditions. There are many other changes that could be mentioned, but I want to share just a few of the specific changes at St. Paul Lutheran.

Our Christian day school has seen some changes over the summer. We are sad to announce that Mrs. Rebecca Kochenderfer will not be returning as our sixth grade teacher. However, we are glad for her that she is pursuing her dream to teach in a special school in Florida. We pray God's blessings on her and her family, as well as thank God for her years of service at St. Paul Lutheran. Due to time restraints, the Board of Education recommends we fill her position with a contract teacher and pursue a called church worker for the 2016-17 school year. The 8th grade will also have a new teacher. We have good news that Mr. Paul Mueller (pronounced Miller) will be installed as our new 8th grade teacher on September 13th. We welcome into our church family the Mueller family: Paul, Jessica, Sophia and Xavier. Mrs. Kay Keinath is still undergoing treatment for her leukemia, so we have issued a one year contract to Mrs. Jessica Phillips, who served as a long term substitute in Kindergarten last school year. There have also been some room changes. The Kindergarten room has been moved to the classroom across from the 2nd and 3rd grade rooms. The reading specialist will be in the old Kindergarten room. The Childcare and Pre-School have also switched rooms in order to allow the coming and going of children throughout the day in Childcare. Having the Childcare with direct access to the exterior door will minimize interruptions to the Pre-School program. The Director of Accounting has been moved across the hall from the Church Office and her old office will become the equipment room for the office.

With all these changes, a big thank you needs to be shouted to all who have helped with the decisions and the physical labor involved in moving.

We also have seen some change in how we approach our junior and high school youth ministry. Many volunteers have helped provide activities and ministry over the summer. Thank you to these people too. If you are interested in helping, let me know and we can find the best way to have you share in this work with our young people. Plans are to keep moving forward in the school year.

This letter has shared what has changed, but we do not change why we do what we do. Paul wrote, "[Christ] died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for Him who died and was raised again" (2 Cor. 5:15). We serve God because He has served us.

We do not change God's Word either, because God does not change. "For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O children of Jacob, are not consumed" (Malachi 3:6). We continue to gather around God's Word for worship every weekend and for Bible study on Sundays, Wednesdays and specific days of the month as noted in our monthly calendar. Despite the many changes in life, God promises in and through His Word to show us mercy when we change our hearts and sinful ways. His forgiveness is always available when we turn to Him in repentance. With God's constant presence, we can face any of the changes in life with confidence and peace. God's love for us in Christ will not change.

Remember – you matter to God and you matter to me,

Rev. James R. Bruner

Dorcas Bake Sale

Summer is slipping away and before you know it, the Summer Festival will be here! Crank up those ovens and get ready to start your baking for the Dorcas Bake Sale on Fri., Aug. 7th. Set up is at 8:30AM in front of the old drug store. People come from all over for our tasty treats, especially butterhorns, cinnamon rolls, cookies, noodles and pies!! Dig out those family recipes and start planning what baked goodies you will be bringing! Any questions, please call Connie Keinath or Betty DeOrnellas.

Water for the Weary

The Board of Evangelism will once again have the "Water for the Weary" booth during the Millington Festival. Please help by signing up for a shift on the glass case in the narthex. Shifts are only 2-3 hours each and all you need to do is smile, hand out water and brochures to interested people.

Fall Festival

The Fall Festival is approaching fast! This year our festivities are on Sat., October 3rd only! We are looking to make this a fun-filled family event, but we do need your help. There are several ways you can help: run a game, help in the concession area, help with the horseshoe tournament, rent a vendor booth, or just come and enjoy yourself. Our silent auction has many items coming in already to be bid on. We will also be offering flu shots in the school office from 10AM-1PM and Michigan Blood will be here for a blood drive from 9AM-5PM. Please help make this a great fundraiser for our school. You may contact Matt or Angie Ayotte 989-882-9376 or the school office if you can help make our festival a success.

Health Kits

Dorcas ladies will be collecting health kit items for the women's shelter in Caro until Aug. 16th. Anyone is welcome to help with this project. There is a collection box in the cabinet in the narthex. We still need 5 hand towels, 1 deodorant, 11 toothpaste, 8 toothbrushes, 14 shampoo, 19 conditioner & 6 combs. We will then start over again collecting these items, along with a few more essentials. Thank you for your support and Dorcas ladies for your caring and generous hearts.

Ushers

If you would like the opportunity to serve your Lord, the Usher Policy has been updated to include both men and women. Ushers are needed for all three services. Please contact the church office, Glen Brown at 810-686-1490 or an Elder for more information.

Engelbrecht, cph 2014, pp. 441-477 (1 Corinthians):

pp. 462-463 Specific Doctrines ... It [1 Corinthians] proclaims the cross not as a tenet to be held or as an article to be believed, but as a power that makes possible, and demands, a life lived to God in all its parts and all its functions, a human life judged by the righteousness of God and a new life created and endowed by His grace.

The letter consequently draws the line between the Church and the world, between human wisdom and the Gospel, between the wisdom of this age and the "foolish," paradoxical wisdom of God, in a way that should have shattered once for all the attempts to make Christianity a rich and interesting blend of the two. The legacy of 1 Corinthians is a perpetual reminder to the Church that she must dare to be "other" if she is to be the apostolic Church of God, that she must dare to oppose the axioms and standards of this world if she is to do her divine work in the world.

pp. 465-466 Application Ch 10 -- In our age, there are many gods. Some are worshiped as such (e.g., Islam, Hinduism); others subtly become gods (e.g., money, pride). But the one true God does not tolerate shared allegiance. If we participate in the worship of false gods or support churches that do not faithfully confess the Gospel in all its purity, this would indicate that we assent to what those worshipping communities believe. For this reason, we avoid such false worship. At the Lord's Table, He offers His body and blood for the forgiveness of sins and through them creates a faithful community, one committed to Him and to one another. As we faithfully worship God, we are also called to build up both our fellow Christians and, ultimately, to lead all whom we meet to Christ. Our actions tell others about who we are in Christ, giving us an opportunity to witness to His love in all aspects of our lives. Christians are not forbidden from interacting with those who do not know Christ—far from it. By our actions and words among them we can testify to the one God and what His Son, Jesus Christ, has done for us.

Special Thanks!

Dear members of St. Paul,

We would like to take an opportunity to thank you for all you have done for us in our years working in ministry with you in Millington. We have made some very dear friends, have had many opportunities to make memories, which we will cherish. Thank you for trusting your middle school children in my care, as I had the privilege to daily share Jesus with them, pray together, and watch them learn and grow. Above all, I will miss the teaching staff that welcomed me into their daily lives and lives outside of school as well. We also have fond memories of Lenten fish fry, choir, Dorcas, school events, Bible study groups, and so many congregational members that expressed their gratitude and kind words through the years.

God has a lot of work for us to do, and as we continue to do His work with you in Michigan, we know there will be opportunities to reconnect, and if not, we know as brothers and sisters in Christ, we will see each other again someday.

Blessings!
Susan and Peter Klauer
