A Message from Pastor Bruner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Many years ago, there was a popular song that described the church. The song stated, "They'll know we are Christians by our love."

Envision or picture St. Paul Lutheran living this out. When people see love in us, it enhances our ability to share the Word of Christ to all.

Every week when we speak our mission statement, we say we are going to "share the Word of Christ to all." What does sharing the Word of Christ to all look like?

There is more than one way to accomplish this mission, but here is one very important component. We can ask God to help us to love one another, so others will know we follow Christ Jesus. As we share the message that He has given us, people will believe we serve a God of love because they will see His love working in us and through us.

Even before we get the results from our self-study, we can begin putting this principle into practice. "They'll know we are Christians by our love."

Remember – you matter to God and you matter to me,

Rev. James R. Bruner

"This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another." 1 John 4:10-11

P.S. During our school registration, we had so many parents say the reason they send their children to St. Paul Lutheran school is because of the Christian environment and the love. I am thankful for this affirmation of our school. I am so grateful to God for the gift of our school. I hope you will join me in praising God for this wonderful tool to teach and share God's love.

Vacancy Plan Report

Thank you to all who have helped complete several pieces of our self-study. There are two steps left before we can get the results. A final interview, with the Church Council, will be completed July 5th. Last of all, some historical information and other data about our congregation needs to be gathered. Any members who enjoy history of our community and church, as well as statistics, are welcome to help us with this task. After all this information has been assembled, then we will wait for the report to be compiled. The final report will enable us to analyze what we are doing well and what needs to be given more attention as we serve in this specific community. The call process and/or other staffing needs will be guided by the analysis we make from the report we receive.

Progress so far:

1. We finished our four week survey of the worship services to get a demographic of who we are serving each week.
2. We have provided surveys for communicant members to complete and return for processing. These will help identify the view our members have of the ministry taking place through St. Paul Lutheran.
3. Thirty members, who are engaged in the ministry of St. Paul through some type of small group, completed an additional and focused survey.
4. Our Congregational Mission and Ministry Facilitator, from the Michigan District, interviewed the leadership, faculty and staff.

This self-study process will take some time and effort, but in the long run it will help us to identify areas of ministry that we can seek to improve. Please keep praying for God's guidance and encourage one another to become engaged in the ministry God has given us to enjoy as a church. This is a great opportunity for members to consider how they can live out their role as a part of the body of Christ here at St. Paul Lutheran.

Bookkeeper's Corner / Financial Report / Memorials

The Bookkeeper's Corner

By Diane Mills
Finance@spmill.org

Gee whiz – a new fiscal year is upon us. It's hard to believe. Voter's passed a deficit budget at the June 11th Voter's meeting – but – it's only ($2,172). After much discussion, it was felt this small deficit would be easily overcome by church giving.

While I cannot provide you end-of-year numbers for our church books (something about meeting Stacey's deadline for the Messenger), I wanted to share our numbers through May, 2017. There has been some concern circulating about the accuracy of our numbers and I want to set your mind at ease – here they are (verified by our Treasurer):

- a) Our church general ledger, which includes all recorded assets, liabilities, income and expense totals $2,428,412.47. Yes – a big number and it balances to the penny.
- b) Our surplus in the general budget for FY 16/17 is $27,356.99. We've tightened our belts and it shows – pat yourselves on the back.
- c) Our overall deficit started at ($77,968.18). We ended at ($50,611.19). Perseverance.

Note: Our deficit numbers as reported to you have had some discrepancy. There is indeed a $104 difference that evades us, but we know where it's at! It's important to know that our overall bookkeeping numbers balance to the penny; it's the deficit reporting that is off by $104.

The financial books are open to any congregational member. Stop by any Tuesday or Thursday and I'll be happy to address any concern you may have.

Electronic Giving Update

Many folks like the idea of on-line giving – it's a very disciplined approach in giving your first fruits to the Lord as He commands. You don't have to remember your envelope that you left on the kitchen counter, either.

At the same time, many folks do not want to give an entity the authority to tap into their bank accounts – I get that – I'm one of them.

Here are some factoids about on-line giving here at St. Paul to consider:

The bookkeeper is the only one that handles your personal information.

Your application that contains your personal information is triple locked in the bookkeeping office.

You can make a change at any time; just call or stop by – a real person whose first language is English and lives in the United States will help you.

On-line giving forms are available in the wall organizer outside of the bookkeeping office.

For those that are already enrolled: The FY 17/18 budget was based on your suggested pledge offering. If you made changes to your pledge, you need to update your on-line giving forms or nothing will be changed.

Walk...Learn...Pray

A community outreach event sponsored by
St. Paul Lutheran Church and School on the Rail Trail
Saturday, October 7, 2017

As part of the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation, Lutheran churches have been encouraged to host a community event. This is for the purpose of outreach and fellowship as we share God's reforming love with others.

St. Paul will be hosting an event called "Walk...Learn...Pray." Family or friend groups are asked to create a project to share along the trail as part of this event. You may research a plant or animal that lives along the trail, describe how our muscles and joints work as we walk, paint a picture, write a poem or story, take photos, design a craft project...anything that God inspires you to create and share. Perhaps you would like to read or tell a story. You could lead a sing-along. You could design a game or quiz to review Bible verses or facts about Martin Luther. If you live along the trail, perhaps you could host a water/snack station. You could organize a hayride or bonfire...the possibilities are endless!

Signs will be posted along the trail encouraging participants to pray for various needs and blessings.

We encourage everyone to plan on attending and bringing along their friends. You have the option of riding your bikes as well as being pushed in a wheelchair. The trail is a public venue so all are welcome.

Please call or text Teresa Walter (989-213-5450) or Christy Ostrander (989-882-5381) if you have questions or ideas. Pray about this event and consider how God is leading you to take part, then complete the form below and turn in to the church or school offices by Aug. 27th.

There, we read that we have no other name by which we must be saved than that of Jesus. He, as God and man, reconciled fallen mankind with the angered God and redeemed them. Many take offense at this and think, "if there is no salvation outside of Christ, how could the fathers in the OT, to whom the Law was proclaimed, be saved?" (Continue below.)

This thinking rests upon a great error. Both in the OT and NT, God showed that the only way to heaven was by faith in the Savior of the world, who is described as "the same yesterday and today and forever" (Heb 13:8). Although, in Eden, Christ had not yet died for our sins, the Gospel about Him was proclaimed there, and the first people were invited to believe in their future Messiah. God spoke to them in a comforting way: "He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise His heel" (Gn 3:15). This meant that, by a blood sacrifice, the Son of a woman would one day blot out sin, together with all its misery. This precious promise was the Gospel of grace, upon which all godly people of the next age placed their trust. ...God repeated this promise to Abraham: "In your offspring [that is, by one Descendant from your family] shall all the nations of the earth be blessed" (Gn 22:18).

This is the testament of which St. Paul speaks in our text. He gives two reasons why the Law does not annul the Gospel: first, because God gave Abraham the Gospel as His testament, as His last, inviolable will, and second, because He first revealed the Law by Moses 430 years later. How can we believe that God, by His threatening Law, wants to annul His Gospel, which is rich in grace? Why, then, would He have first given the Law centuries after the Gospel? And hasn't God Himself declared that the promise of Christ is His testament, His last will, in which He has appointed all people of the earth to be heirs of His blessing? God may have given the Law on Sinai with great majesty, but it cannot overturn the testament of His Gospel for us.

Behold, dear Christian, if you have fallen, perhaps deeply, into sin, you may fear drawing near the holy God... Know that God's last will does not call for casting you away, ... Open the precious Gospel, and you will find His final will, which shall not be changed: "Jesus sinners doth receive" (TLH 324:1). Believe the Gospel and behold with joy the seal of Holy Baptism and the Holy Supper, with which God has irrevocably ratified His precious testament to you.
