August 2022

"We are God's servants, saved by grace, through faith, commissioned to share the Word of Christ to all."

A Message from Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Two years ago we were in the midst of a pandemic. We have come through a stressful time, and we are still cautious about new variants. We are now hearing regularly about war in other countries and various shootings in our own. That is not the end of what can fill our ears and trouble our minds. There is the constant indoctrination of alternative lifestyles in advertisements, TV shows, movies, magazines and encounters in life. Since Roe vs. Wade was reversed, there are hateful and even illegal attacks against anyone who promotes the value of all human life. We are also in the midst of financial anxiety caused by high inflation. All of this can overwhelm us.

What does the future hold for us next? Perhaps you have heard this saying, "We don't know what the future holds, but we do know Who holds the future." There is good news. We will go through struggles and hardships (Acts 14:21-22), but God is with us and will deliver us through it all.

Get back to the Bible; listen to it and understand it. Let God speak to you and then through you.

Come all you who are weary and heavy laden and I will give you rest.
Matt. 11:28

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. All who rage against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced; those who oppose you will be as nothing and perish. Isaiah 41:10-11

[Jesus said] Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God trust also in me... I am going to prepare a place for you... I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. John 14:1-4

You [Lord] will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts in you. Isaiah 26:3

But in your hearts set apart Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect. 1 Peter 3:15

In Isaiah 41, The LORD is contrasted to idols that cannot do good or bad in the future, because they are not living. Our God is living and He promises to be with us and to provide for us. Our God knows our suffering because He came into our human flesh. He endured it all for us and then defeated it. This is the God who speaks to us comfort and peace. Overcome what overwhelms you with the words of our God. Spend some more time in the Word of God. He will speak to your heart, then you can speak to others what comes from within your heart.

Remember – you matter to God and you matter to me,

Pastor Jim Bruner

St Paul Lutheran Prayer Chain

We are trying to get our prayer chain going again. This prayer chain is a separate entity for those who do not have social media such as Facebook, email, etc. or would like to be on "both".

Our hope is to keep our prayer warriors praying for our church family and their family/friends. The list has been revised and I will add more as updated. If you know someone who would like to be on the prayer chain and make calls to pray, please let Gale know.

Here's how it works... Please call the person below your name on the chain. If you do not get an answer, leave a message or text stating you have a prayer request. Call the next person on the list until you get an answer so the prayer request can be passed on through the chain as efficiently and quickly as possible. Let's not break the chain.

1 Thessalonians 5:17 Pray continually.

Matthew 18:19 "Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven."
