March 2022

"We are God's servants, saved by grace, through faith, commissioned to share the Word of Christ to all."

A Message from Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Lent is here. Ash Wednesday is March 2. Beginning with Ash Wednesday and continuing through Holy Week in April, we invite you to our Wednesday night worship services at 6:30pm. Here, you will hear witnesses to Christ from the Gospel of John.

John tells us why he wrote his Gospel: "Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name" (John 20:30-31). Life! When we believe that Jesus is the Christ, God gives us life – abundant life, forgiven life, and eternal life.

Historically, the Fourth Gospel is likened to an eagle – an image that suggests John soars to heights of glory and grandeur. That's because the evangelist paints a stunning portrait of Jesus, who is the bread of life (John 6:35), the resurrection and the life (John 11:25), and the way, the truth, and the life (John 14:6). Life in Jesus. That's God's gift to you!

This Lent, our life in Christ will be strengthened as we hear the witness of those in John's Gospel who journeyed to the cross. Along the way, we'll meet villains, such as Barabbas and Pontius Pilate, as well as sinners, such as Peter (who denied Jesus three times), Mary Magdalene (who was possessed by seven demons), and Judas Iscariot (who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver).

Please join us for worship as we hear the witness of these people in John's Gospel:

Ash Wednesday (March 2): John the Baptist, John 1:29–34

Midweek of Lent 1 (March 9): Mary, the Sister of Lazarus and Martha, John 12:1–11

Midweek of Lent 2 (March 16): Malchus, John 18:1–11

Midweek of Lent 3 (March 23): Peter, John 18:12–27

Midweek of Lent 4 (March 30): Barabbas, John 18:33–40

Midweek of Lent 5 (April 6): Pontius Pilate, John 19:1–16

Palm Sunday (April 10): The Disciples, John 12:12–19

Maundy (Holy) Thursday (April 14): Judas Iscariot, John 13:21–30

Good Friday (April 15): John, the Gospel Writer, John 19:25–37; Nicodemus, John 19:38–42

The Resurrection of Our Lord (April 17): Mary Magdalene, John 20:1–18

As we continue to celebrate our 125th Anniversary, remember that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. Join us as we continue our year-long celebration this Lenten Season as we prepare our hearts and minds to walk with Christ during His Passion.

In Christ,

Pastor Tim Martinal

Health & Safety Precautions

As the Board of Elders keep an eye on the health of the congregation, we ask that during this season of colds, flu, and Covid, if you are not feeling well, please stream church from home until you are feeling better. If you have concerns about being around others, we suggest that you sit at the front of the church where fewer people sit, and be aware the use of a mask is perfectly acceptable should you decide to wear one. Elders will be considering further measures and will be communicating them to the congregation as the need arises.

We also ask that you do not come to the church or school offices if you have ANY cold, flu, or Covid symptoms. Please help to keep the staff and students healthy.

If you have tested positive for Covid, please call the church office to let us know what service you attended. Your name will be kept anonymous, but we want to let the congregation know and prevent further illness. Thank you for being considerate to others.

St. Paul Lutheran School

March 2022

St. Paul Lutheran School is committed to engaging students with a comprehensive education grounded in God's Word to prepare them for a life in Christ.

Welcome to March! Everyone sees green and clovers this month. What a wonderful way to explain our triune God...3 in 1. Like the clover, our God is filled with love, shown by each of the three heart shaped lobes of the clover. Also, the clover is always green representing the everlasting life that we receive through Christ Jesus' life, death, and resurrection!

This is also a great way to remember how our church and school's mission continues to grow and flourish as we celebrate our 125th anniversary and Lutheran Schools Week, March 6-11. This year our focus is on how Jesus came not be served but to serve. We invite you and your family to keep the school, faculty and students in your prayers this week and throughout the rest of the year as well.

Here is a list of the special activities for LUTHERAN SCHOOLS WEEK:

Many Thanks

We asked our congregation for the needs for the Health Kits that are given to the Women's Shelter in Caro, MI; a need at least three times a year. The shelter gives each woman who enters one of these kits because they often must leave their home with nothing. The donations were such a blessing that Terri Jo Keinath and Jennifer Koch were able to put together 10 Health Kits on Tues., Feb. 15th so that Terri Jo can take them to the Women's Shelter just as our Faith on Fire Bible Truth says, "God calls us to serve Him." If you donated for the Health Kits... a huge thank you! What a blessing to be able to serve our God!

Dear Members of St. Paul,
Thank you for the opportunity to minister in your midst on the occasion of your 125th anniversary of the church and school. Conducting the Wednesday school chapel services and visiting a few of the classrooms was a treat. Words fail to describe how fulfilling it was preaching the three weekend services and conducting the Sunday Bible class. What topped it all off was the well-attended potluck style gathering at Sunday noon during which time Julia and I could visit with members. And we so appreciated being hosted by Steve and Mary Kern and meeting with a number of individuals and families during our Michigan stay. Thank you so much.

May our Lord Jesus bless you and yours. May He bless your continuing celebration of 125 years of God's blessings. If any of you are in or near Cedar Rapids, Iowa, you are welcome to visit while we are still here. Thank you for the time we shared for 12 years and this last week of January, 2022.

Your in our Lord's service,
Timothy J. Bickel
