St. Paul Monthly Messenger

October 2012

Rev. James Bruner
Rev. Kirk Abatelli

A Message from Pastor Bruner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Did your routine change last month? For those with children, school started. That brought a change from the summer routine (or lack thereof). Whether you have children or not, the change in season might have encouraged you to do something different. Many of those last outdoor projects have called for attention before it is too cold (and something white is falling from the sky). Maybe something else brought change to your life.

A change in routine can be helpful. It can lead us to evaluate what we have been doing and what we need to focus on for the future. Looking back can be gratifying especially after making some positive changes. These changes are actually exciting to share with others. That is what 1 Peter 2:9 describes. "But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light."

You are special to God; therefore, He has chosen you to be one of His people. You are wanted and loved.

He loves you for who you are, but He loves you enough not to leave you that way. That is why Jesus came to suffer and die in place of the old you and then sent the Holy Spirit to change you into someone new. God is always seeking to bring about a new way of life and a brighter future. He doesn't want to leave any of us in our present condition.

As you come face to face with the present changes, I hope you will make a special change in your routine. Reflect each day on what it means to belong to God and what wonderful changes He has made in your life through Jesus Christ.

Consider what would happen if you shared with others what God has done for you. Instead of talking about the weather, try something new. Tell someone about how Jesus has brought you out of the darkness in life and into His wonderful light.

Remember – you matter to God and you matter to me,

Pastor Jim Bruner

This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 1 John 4:10-11

Sun., Oct. 14th at 1:30PM

If you are a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church, 18yrs or older, you can become a voting member by attending a meeting and asking to join. After you have been received as a voting member, you are eligible to vote at the following meeting.

I Can Buy a Box of Cereal for Under a $1.00! How?

That is what the ladies from the Obsessive Coupon Disorder organization can teach you. God has charged us to be good stewards with our money and these ladies will show you how you can increase savings at the grocery store so that you can increase your tithing. The date for our 2 1/2 hour class is Fri., Oct. 26th at 6 PM in the Projects Room. Invite your friends as well. You do NOT have to be a member of St. Paul to take the class. The cost for the class is $25, but that will include access to their coupon database. You will easily be able to save your $25 on your first shopping trip. Again, we will start promptly at 6 PM and free babysitting will be available. Prior to the class, you will want to buy three Detroit Free Press newspapers to increase your coupon inventory. Watch the church bulletin and school newsletter for updates.

We need at least 15 people to hold a class. If not, we will have to cancel the class. Please call the Kaisers at 823-3111 and reserve your seat. Please get the word out.
